Sense The Difference

About Us :

Our journey commenced in January 2023 with a clear understanding that scent defines the unique identity of every product.

At Apost Alchemists, we create fragrances with carefully selected raw materials, infused with natural essential oils, to deliver a superior olfactory experience. Our Founder, Mr. Jayesh Kothari, brings extensive global exposure, having trained in France and Italy and worked with leading fragrance houses such as IFF, Symrise, and Firmenich. With experience in creating bespoke fragrances for renowned clients including Unilever, P&G, Godrej, and Wipro, he possesses a strong understanding of the Indian market and consumer preferences.

Supported by our state-of-the-art manufacturing facility, we provide flexible, customizable production volumes to meet varied client requirements.

Our Purpose

To craft fragrances that embody excellence, creativity, and distinction.

Our Vision

To be the most trusted fragrance partner, setting new benchmarks in quality and innovation, and ensuring every fragrance becomes an authentic extension of a brand's identity.

Our Commitment

Through meticulous formulation and the use of premium-quality ingredients, we enable brands to create memorable olfactory impressions that reinforce their uniqueness.

APOST ALCHEMISTS FRAGRANCES THAT INSPIRE TRUST

At Apost Alchemists, we redefine fragrance creation with world-class expertise.

Backed by cutting-edge technology and insights from leading international fragrance houses, we deliver international standards, consistent quality, innovative formulations, and unmatched reliability making us the preferred partner for industry leaders.

OUR PROCESS

We carefully select the finest ingredients — natural essential oils, resinoids, gums, and extracts — from trusted global suppliers. Our sourcing network ensures purity, authenticity, and access to rare, premium raw materials.

Using state-of-the-art dispensing technology, we create seamless blends with precision. Each formula is mixed following strict protocols to ensure consistency and homogeneity in every batch.

We follow strict SOPs for packaging and preservation, guaranteeing that each fragrance retains its character and is delivered safely, securely, and leak-proof.

Our perfumers craft harmonious, well-balanced scent profiles that align with client briefs and elevate product experiences. Every note is carefully measured to deliver depth, character, and lasting impact.

Every fragrance undergoes rigorous testing for quality, stability, diffusion, and performance across applications — ensuring it meets the highest industry standards.
